MR. HOOVER:

Walter Jenkins told me last night at the White House that he was seriously concerned about the continued employment of [redacted] He indicated that the President had also expressed some concern about [redacted] Jenkins told me that [redacted] was strictly Bobby Kennedy's boy and that Kennedy had been protecting him all along. He further indicated, as a matter of strict confidence, that the President was not yet quite ready to take on Bobby, however, [redacted] would definitely be eased out in the near future when the time was right.

(b)(7)(c)

[redacted] The Attorney General accused us of leaking information to the HCUA. This was proven false when the availability of public source information concerning [redacted] and his activities was readily made known.

(b)(7)(c)

Respectfully,

C. D. DeLoach
